

London City Mission Evangelism Resources

lcm.org.uk

London City Mission may be focused on London, but the resources it produces are suitable for churches all across the UK.

On its website, you will find videos, stories, podcasts and more covering all aspects of evangelism.

Some examples include:

Calling All Unimpressive Evangelists

A blog by James Tredgett, Team Leader in Hackney, dispelling the myth that sharing the gospel is only for the super Christian.

'As Christians, we are God's hands and feet. God doesn't need to use us, but somehow, he delights in using us as broken vessels, and that includes all of us. God is predisposed to use the weak and the needy so that he gets more glory. The apostle Paul writes, "we have this treasure in jars of clay to show that this all-surpassing power is from God and not from us" (2 Corinthians 4:7).'

An invitation to a banquet

A video and thought piece by Yannick Christos-Wahab on reaching those on the margins of society with the good news of Jesus.

'I want to make the case that reaching those on the margins of society with the good news of Jesus should be our focus, too. That's our goal. And to see that, we will look at three truths from this parable of the wedding feast in Luke 14:12-24.

The parable offers a profound message that challenges our understanding of who will likely accept the gospel.'

Crossing Cultural Barriers in Tooting

An article about sharing the gospel with a diverse local community.

"We were so timid we couldn't give out a tract, let alone speak to anyone," says Sister Gloria, a long-serving member of NTA Tooting.

"We used to go out to share the gospel with people on the street. But every week, we'd come back with all the tracts still in our hands, we weren't connecting with people" she recalls.'
